

DOBES

Depositor-Archivist Agreement

DOBES-DAA-V1

Peter Wittenburg, 19.7.2005

This document describes (a) the status of a corpus provided by a DOBES documentation team at the end of its funding period, (b) the rights of the archivist with respect to the material deposited and (c) the terms according to which access rights can be given to others by the archivist. Since the terms will be very different dependent on the region of activity each agreement has to be unique.

The policies of the archivist are described by the document "Data Access and Protection Rules (DOBES-DAPR-V2)". The interaction with the users is defined by two documents: Usage Request (DOBES-UR-V1) and Usage Declaration (DOBES-UD-V1).

The depositor represented by the responsible researcher(s)

Name

Current Affiliation

and the archivist represented by

Name

Institution Max-Planck-Institute for Psycholinguistics, Nijmegen, The Netherlands

hereby come to an agreement about the state of the deposited corpus, the rights of the archivist and the terms of its usage by others.

General Regulations

1. The archivist has the right and obligation to archive this material and preserve it, i.e., create as many as archival copies as necessary.
2. In case of restricted access to the material specified the archivist will ask potential users to specify their usage intentions and to accept the DOBES Code of Conduct.
3. The archivist will give the depositor free and open access to the material delivered under this agreement and all added values contributed by thirds to this material.
4. The depositor declares that he/she has informed the consultants in accordance with the DOBES Code of Conduct and has obtain an informed consent.

5. The depositor declares that the results of his/her research work, i.e. the derived textual material such as annotations, dictionaries, notes of various sort, will be available to non-commercial users at least after 3 years if they agree to the DOBES Code of Conduct and if no ethical or other serious reasons have to be considered.
6. The state of the resources is documented by a PDF document that lists all resources and their associated access rights. These documents will be archived and every two years a new PDF document will be created. The depositor can react within a month and send a correction note, otherwise the archivist assumes that the state described is correct and accepted.

Signature Responsible Researcher

Signature Archivist

Place

Date

This written form will be used once at the end of the project. Afterwards the matter will be dealt with electronically.